5. To prepare the annual Exempt Status Report of the SRA and file it with the IRS and Franchise Tax Board if required.
6. To assist the President as requested.

e. The duties of the Immediate Past President shall be:

1. To serve as chair of the Nominating Committee;
2. To serve as Parliamentarian;
3. To assist the President as requested.

ARTICLE V: SRA ORGANIZATIONAL GOVERNANCE

Section 1. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE - The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the overall operation of the SRA, establish broad policies, and insure that all actions are in accord with USC policies, directives and procedures. The Executive Committee shall consist of the following officers.

- President
- Vice-President
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Immediate Past President

BOARD OF DIRECTORS - A Board of Directors shall be established to conduct the Association’s business in an orderly manner. This board shall consist of the Executive Committee Members and the appointed chairpersons of all Standing Committees and the members at large, each having one vote. In addition, the Executive Director of the Emeriti Center and the President of the Retired Faculty Association shall serve as ex-officio members. A representative of the Staff Assembly shall be invited to serve as a non-voting member. Persons who have served as members of the Board of Directors for at least 10 years, and who have made significant contributions to the Association, but are no longer able to take on specific duties, may be appointed by the Board as Honorary members of the Board. These members will be invited to attend board meetings as non-voting members when they are able to provide guidance to the Board.

MEMBERS AT LARGE - Members at Large may be appointed to the Board of Directors by the President in consultation with the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Types of Committees

a. STANDING COMMITTEES - Standing Committees of the SRA shall have defined scope and authority. These Committees shall bring recommendations for action to the Board of Directors.

The following Standing Committees shall be established by these Bylaws. Other Standing Committees may be established through amendment of these Bylaws.

Publications Committee:
Responsibilities include:
1. Assisting in the development of a website that the Board of Directors deems necessary to keep members informed of matters pertaining to the SRA;
2. Posting of activities, events, and actions of the SRA and other organizations and institutions that are of interest to the operation of the SRA and the lives of its members;
3. Notifying SRA members, with no working email, of activities and events by postcard.

Member Recruitment & Retention Committee:
Responsibilities include all actions associated with the recruitment of new and current members.

Data Management Committee:
1. Responsible for the maintenance of the SRA data base and retrieval of necessary information in support of activities of the SRA, preparation and mailing of dues notices, acknowledgments, and ordering/maintaining the necessary supplies;
2. Report to the Board monthly of names of new members and total membership numbers.

Benefits Committee:
Represents the SRA at the meetings of the USC Retired Faculty and Staff Benefits Committee and informing the Board of Directors and the membership where appropriate, of proposals and actions affecting the SRA.
Staff, Student and Community Opportunities and Activities Committee:
Responsible for facilitating programs to foster interaction between USC staff members and USC students to gain a better understanding of the neighborhood surrounding USC, to increase community resident USC staff retirees’ involvement with the various USC retiree activities, and to assist the university in maintaining positive and supportive relationships with the residents of the communities adjacent to the USC campuses.

Written Communications Committee:
Responsibilities include preparing and mailing written communications such as, birthday and anniversary greetings to SRA members, and appropriate communications in case of serious illness or the death of a family member. This includes developing a list of committee persons to send out cards, preferably one for each month. Also, includes annually purchasing the necessary cards for the following year.

Program Committee:
Responsibilities include arranging for the programs at all SRA General Membership meetings. This includes, but is not limited to; selecting the program, arranging for the development of any necessary flyers and other promotional pieces.

Hospitality Committee:
Responsible for arranging food services, greeters, nametags and support equipment for the SRA General Meetings and other events in which the SRA participates, in coordination with the Program Committee.

Special Events Committee:
Responsible for making arrangements for special events for the purpose of providing social gatherings for members.

b. AD HOC COMMITTEES - Ad Hoc Committees shall be appointed by the President to perform tasks or to make recommendations on particular issues of concern, such as changes to the Bylaws. Ad Hoc Committees shall be dissolved upon completion of their assignments.

Section 3. Standing Committee Chairs
In June of each election year, the President, with the advice of the Executive Committee, shall appoint a chair for each Standing Committee. Appointees will serve for two (2) years and are eligible for re-appointment at the pleasure of the Executive Committee. If a vacancy occurs, the President shall appoint a replacement who will serve out the unexpired term.
ARTICLE VI. MEETINGS AND METHOD OF BUSINESS

Section 1. Fiscal Year

The Fiscal Year shall extend from July 1 through June 30.

Section 2. Meetings

a. The Annual Business Meeting shall be held during the month of June.

b. At the beginning of each fiscal year, officers shall meet to establish a calendar of regular meetings for the Executive Committee, Board of Directors, as well as additional meetings for the general membership. This calendar shall be available to all members.

c. The Executive Committee and Board of Directors shall hold regular meetings in a place and at a time accessible to SRA members. Presence of a majority of the meeting group’s voting members shall constitute a quorum. As a normal practice, the Executive Committee and the full Board of Directors’ meetings will be combined.

d. Special meetings may be called by the President as needed.

e. NOTE:
